

CALL FOR PROPOSALS – EACEA/ 35/2008

for the implementation of

Erasmus Mundus External Cooperation Window in the academic year 2009/2010

The Community Action programme for the promotion of cooperation between higher education institutions and the exchange of students, researchers and academic staff from EU Member States and Third-Countries

1. OBJECTIVES AND DESCRIPTION

The Erasmus Mundus External Cooperation Window aims at mutual enrichment and better understanding between the European Union and Third-Countries. It is designed to foster institutional co-operation in the field of higher education between the European Union and Third-countries through a mobility scheme addressing student and academic exchanges for the purpose of studying, teaching, training and research.

Please note that this is the third EM External Cooperation Window (ECW) Call for Proposals and that EM ECW is integrated as Action II "Partnerships" under the new Erasmus Mundus II programme aiming at promoting institutional co-operation and mobility activities.

2. ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS AND COUNTRIES

Applicants must be Universities or European Higher Education Institutions representing a partnership up to 20 partners' institutions.

The partnership composition has to be constituted of European Higher Education Institutions, in possession of an Erasmus Charter before the date of publication of the present Call, and Third-Country Higher Education Institutions recognised and accredited by the national authorities.

Activities must take place in one of the eligible countries covered by this Call. There are three groups of eligible countries/regions:

- The 27 member States of the European Union
- European Candidate countries (Croatia and Turkey) and EEA countries (Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway)
- The following Third-countries and geographical regions:
Argentina, Brazil, China, Russia, India, Asia region, Central Asian Republics, Latin America region, Middle East region, Southern and Eastern neighbouring area and Western Balkans region.

3. ELIGIBLE ACTIVITIES

The EC grants will contribute to financing institutional-based partnerships of European and Third-Country higher education institutions to cover the following types of activities:

- ✓ the organisation of individual mobility of higher education students and academic staff and
- ✓ the implementation of individual mobility. The types of mobility and education to be funded in this Call are:
 - Students: undergraduate, master, doctorate and post-doctorate mobility opportunities
 - Academic staff: exchanging for the purposes of teaching, practical training and research.

The planned duration of a project may not exceed 48 months.

Eligible activities, including preparatory activities, can start on 15th July 2009 provided that contracts have been signed. The actions should all be finished before 15th July 2013.

Except in cases of "force majeure" duly justified and subject to prior authorisation by the Agency, all individual mobility must start at the latest by 1st September 2010.

4. AWARD CRITERIA

The award criteria allow evaluating the quality of the proposals submitted in relation to the objectives and priorities set so that, grants are awarded to actions which maximise the overall effectiveness of the Call for Proposals.
